UNDOCUMENTED AND OUT-OF-STATUS STUDENTS

Resident Rate of Tuition for Non-Residents of New York State, Including Undocumented and Out-of-Status Students

A law provides in-state (resident) tuition benefits to certain undocumented students. You may qualify for the lower in-state tuition if you meet one of the following eligibility criteria:

- (1) you attended an approved New York State High School for two years and graduated from an approved New York State high school and applied for attendance at CUNY within 5 years of receiving a New York State High School diploma, or;
- (2) you attended an approved New York State program for General Equivalency Diploma (GED) exam preparation, received a GED issued within New York State, and applied for attendance at CUNY within 5 years of receiving a New York State General Equivalency Diploma; or
- (3) you were enrolled in CUNY in the Fall 2001 semester or quarter and were authorized by CUNY to pay tuition at the resident rate. Thus, a student who attended CUNY in the Fall 2001 semester and paid the resident rate does not have to satisfy either condition 1 or 2 above.

In addition, students without lawful immigration status must file an affidavit (notarized) stating that they have filed an application to legalize their immigration status or will file such an application as soon as they are eligible to do so.

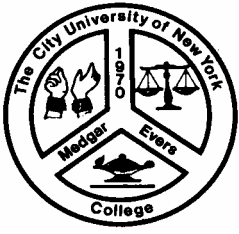

Affidavit of Intent to Legalize Immigration Status Form

The law applies not only prospectively, but also to the Spring and Summer 2002 semesters. Accordingly, undocumented or out-of-status immigrant students, who were previously charged the non-resident rate of tuition for the Spring 2002 and Summer 2002 semesters are eligible for the resident rate of tuition for that semester if they can satisfy the conditions of the new law.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Please fill out the Affidavit of Intent to Legalize Immigration Status and the City University of New York Residency Form and submit proof of which eligibility criteria qualifies you for the in-state (resident) tuition. Please bring in your passport and/or other proof that you are a undocumented or out-of-status immigrant. If you have any questions please contact the Office of Admissions at (718) 270-6024.
