

Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program

WWW.RANGELPROGRAM.ORG

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Program is accepting applications for the 2020 Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program at www.rangelprogram.org!

Do you know a student interested in a career in international affairs?

Application Deadline
February 4, 2020

The Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program is a six-week program at Howard University that helps prepare undergraduate students for careers in international affairs. Students learned about different career paths, both inside and outside of government, with an emphasis on careers in the U.S. Department of State. They hone professional skills needed to be competitive for and succeed in careers of international service. It includes two for-credit academic courses, a professional writing seminar, visits and meetings with foreign affairs professionals in a wide range of government and non-governmental organizations, and professional development activities. It pays for tuition, room, board, and transportation and provides a stipend. The program will run from mid-June until late July.

Website
www.rangelprogram.org

Program Contact
Laurel Brooks
laurel.brooks@howard.edu
rangelprogram@howard.edu
202-806-4367 or 877-633-0002

Eligibility requirements

- U.S. citizenship
- A comprehensive GPA of at least 3.2
- Full-time undergraduate student status with at least sophomore status at the time of the application deadline

The program encourages the application of members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service, women and those with financial need. Applicants with any undergraduate major are welcome to apply.

The Rangel International Affairs Program is a U.S. Department of State program, administered by Howard University, that attracts and prepares young people for careers of international service.