Medgar Evers College Residency Checklist

All Students must complete the CUNY Residency Form with the appropriate documentation.

Please choose one of the following if applicable:

If you are Undocumented please submit: [ ] NYS High School Diploma (only applies if you attended and completed High School in New York State)

If you are a Permanent Resident please submit: [ ] Permanent Resident (green) card OR [ ] Copy of I-551 stamp

If you are filing for Permanent Residence or Citizenship please submit:
A) [ ] Affidavit of Intent to Legalize (Included in Residency Application)
B) [ ] Official Government receipt of application (I-485 form) or work authorization card

Note: Students applying for the New York Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) may be subject to the “Ability to Benefit” requirement if they graduated from a high school outside the United States. Please see the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) website for further details.

Note: This documentation must be submitted in addition to proof of New York State residency, please see below.

Instructions: Please bring in original documentation. You may choose from either List A or List B below to prove your New York State residency. Dates of all documents submitted must cover 12-month period immediately preceding the first day of class or NYS residency will not be approved.

Please submit all required documents on or before the last day of classes in the semester to which you are applying.

Choose ONLY 1 item from List A. Please check off the item from List A that you are including in your application.

LIST A

[ ] Lease, deed or rent registration form signed by the landlord and tenant (student).

[ ] Copies of the most recent complete Federal and New York State tax returns, with the preprinted label, and the corresponding W-2 form.

Note: If you are a student who resides with your parent(s) and did not file a New York State tax return, you may submit a recent New York State tax return from your parent(s) only if they claim you as a dependent on their taxes. Another item(s) from List A or B is required to complete your application.

[ ] Budget/benefit letter from New York City Public Assistance with student’s New York Address Covering the 12 month period immediately preceding the first day of classes and including the student’s name.

[ ] Benefits letter from the Social Security with the student’s New York address and name.

Or

Choose ONLY 2 items from List B. Please check off the items from List B that you are including in your application.

LIST B

[ ] Homeowner’s or renter’s insurance policy. [ ] Automobile registration.

[ ] Voter registration certificate or card. [ ] Proof of attendance as a juror in New York State.

[ ] Armed formed identification card DD form 2A (green). [ ] Monthly bank or credit card statements covering a period of 12 months

[ ] A valid New York State driver’s license showing issuance one year prior to the first day of classes.

[ ] New York State non-driver’s license which has been issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles or other valid state identification cards.

[ ] Telephone or utility bills or payments (e.g. cable, con-ed, etc.) covering a 12 month period. We do not need bills for every month of the 12-month period. Only submit the page(s) that prove a one-year residency in New York State (e.g. a Con-Ed bill for 06/01/07 and a bill for 06/01/08).

[ ] Alternate Lease statement (provided in the residency package). Both lease holder and student must fill out the statement and have it notarized.

Note: Students under the age of 24 whose parents or legal guardians live outside of New York State may be considered non-residents. The CCNY Towers dormitory is ineligible for in-state tuition; it is not considered a permanent New York State residence.

Students who are U.S. citizens and have attended high school outside of the state must prove NYS residency.
To be eligible for New York State tuition and fees, you may be required to prove New York State residency for at least the twelve-month period (1 year) preceding the first day of classes. If there is a question regarding your N.Y. State residency and you wish to be charged in-state rates, you must complete a CUNY Residency Form ("Undocumented or Out-of-Status" students—see below for special instructions). The information you provide will determine if you meet the guidelines set by the City University of New York. Failure to provide the required documentation will result in your being billed as a non-resident. Incomplete applications or missing documents will delay the processing of the application.

1. Work Authorized or I-485 Applicants - Students who have filed the USCIS form I-485 and are waiting for adjustment of status to permanent resident are eligible for in-state tuition. Students who are pending an adjustment of status can submit the following: 1) an INS or USCIS Receipt for the Adjustment of Status Application indicating receipt of the I-485; or 2) USCIS receipt indicating that the fee for the adjustment application has been received. The receipt will list the I-485, the name of applicant, file number and amount paid; or 3) an Employment Authorization Card with the codes (A)(3), (A)(5), (A)(10), (A)(12), (C)(8), (C)(9), (C)(11), (C)(14), (C)(19), (C)(22), or (C)(24). Appropriate document(s) proving immigration status must be submitted with your CUNY Residency form and supporting residency documents.

2. Temporary Visa Holders Eligible for In-state Tuition - Students who hold one of the following visa categories: Diplomatic Visa (A); Trade Treaty Visa (E); International Organization (G); Work (H-1B, H-1C, H-4 who is a dependent of an H); Media Visa (I); Fiancée of U.S. citizen (K); Transfer employee (L); Parent or child of alien (N); Religious (R); Crime witness (S); Alien Trafficking (T); Crime Victim (U); Spouse and Children of Permanent Resident (V) are eligible if living in New York State for one year or more. Please submit a copy of your I-94 and supporting documents with the CUNY Residency Form. The following immigration visas are not eligible for in-state tuition: B, D, F, H-2, H-3, H-4 (family members of H-2 or H-3), J, M, O, P, Q, or TN. Appropriate document(s) proving immigration status must be submitted with your CUNY Residency form and supporting residency documents.

3. Undocumented or Out-of-Status - Students who are “Undocumented” or “out of status” and wish to claim in-state tuition, must meet one of the following conditions: 1) attended an approved New York State High School for two or more years, graduated and applied to attend CUNY within five years of receiving the New York State Diploma; or 2) attended an approved New York State Program for the General Education Development Diploma (GED) exam preparation, received the GED issued in New York State, and have applied to attend CUNY within five year of receiving the New York State GED; or 3) enrolled in a CUNY institution for the Fall 2001 semester and were authorized to pay the resident tuition. Please complete Part A and Part B of the CUNY Residency Form. Additional documentation is not required.

4. Other Students - Students applying for in-state tuition must complete the CUNY Residency Form and submit the appropriate documentation; must have resided in NYS, with the intent to stay, for at least 1 year prior to the first day of class for the semester in which they are applying for a determination. For the CUNY information on Residency and procedures go to CUNY FEE Manual.

Students under the age of 24 must provide their parents' most recent Federal tax returns, unless the student is married or has a dependent child. If the student is claimed as a dependent on their parents' tax returns and parents live out-of-state, the student is not eligible for in-state tuition. To provide proof of independence, students must submit their most recent Federal taxes, NYS taxes and W-2’s, as well as their parents' Federal tax returns which should indicate that they are not claimed as a dependent.

• The college will not review any residency determination unless the request for the review is made, and all the required documentation is submitted, during the semester for which resident tuition is being sought.

• If the College finally determines that you are non-resident, you may appeal by notifying the Registrar’s Office (or other designated college appeal office) in writing within ten days of the adverse decision. At that time you may submit a statement indicating why you disagree with the College’s decision. The Registrar (or other designated official) will submit the City University Residency Form, copies of all documentation provided by you and any statement made by you, along with the College’s determination, to the University’s Office of the Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs and General Counsel which will render a decision on your appeal.
